

Commotion in the Ocean

MUSIC AND SOUNDS OF THE SEA WITH SARA TURNER

Turn yourself and your kitchen utensils into an orchestra!

Here's what's in your pack:

Twirly pipe
Tin foil Bubble wrap
Paper
Pencil
Grit

Watch my video, full of ideas of how to make music using
this pack
bit.ly/CITOMusic

You could also use:

Saucepans
Wooden spoons
Bottle tops
Grater
Mug
Tinfoil
Metal spoons
Pens and pencils
Bubble wrap
Food packaging
Pasta
Rice
Cereal boxes

Listen to these two pieces
of music to inspire you,
and turn the page for more ideas!

"The Carnival of the Animals: Aquarium"
by Saint Saens
www.youtu.be/IyFpZ5MZ7kk

"La Mer: Play of the Waves"
by Debussy
www.youtu.be/3o8uUP0ls9c

*Pssst...! Turn over the sheet for more music
making ideas*

*Can you make noises
that sound like the following words?*

Whoosh	Flow
Splash	Boat
Waves	Pebbles
Shark	Rockpool
Octopus	Sand
Storm	Whale
Rain	Turtle
Jellyfish	Bubbles
Coral

Photo credit ; Google Stormy seas 2

*Can you tell a story just using noises?
You could be inspired by these images.*

Photo credit; Google, Thinkstock photos

*Why don't you change
the words of a song you know, and turn it into a song about the ocean?*

Eg: (To the tune of Baa, Baa Black Sheep)

Whistle, whistle dolphin,
Have you any food?
Yes sir, yes sir, three fins full,
One for the master,
One for the dame,
And one for the lobster
who's hiding yet again!